

Countdown to the writing STAAR* Grade 4 Series 1 Comp 1

Justin wrote a paper about a favorite memory. Justin wants you to edit his paper. Read Justin's paper and think about the corrections he needs to make.

The Night the Lights Went Out

(1) It began as an ordinary Tuesday Night in January. (2) My brother was in his room playing video games. (3) My sister was in her room talking on her new cell phone. (4) My parents were watching television. (5) I was downloading music MP3's on my computer. (6) Suddenly the power went out and the house became dark. (7) I blinked and strained my eyes at first, but they eventually adjusted. (8) To the darkness.

(9) From down the hall my brother yelled, "What happened?"

(10) My mother said, "The power must be out, so everybody come into the family room." (11) Everyone stumbled in the darkness, but we made it to the family room. (12) We couldn't find any flashlight, so mom lit some candles. (13) The smell of the candles was creepy, but at least we had some light.

(14) I said, "Well, what are we supposed to do now?" (15) Dad said, "Don't worry, the television was out of the question, and my brother was using his cell phone. (16) It was too dark to play outside, of course. (17) I guess we'll just stay in here for the rest of the night. (18) But as it turned out, the night was not so boring. (19) Dad told us some ghost stories that were really scary. (20) Mom prepared two plates of cheese, and crackers. (21) Dad told us all about how he had been how silly they were. (22) I told my family about my new MP3 collection.

(23) We talked for hours. (24) We played games by candlelight. (25) We told knock-knock jokes and laughed together. (26) It was the most fun we had had ourselves in months. (27) At nine o'clock the power finally came back on and electric light flooded the house once again.

(28) I said, "Shoot, I like it when the power is off!"

(29) Mom said, "It's time for bed, kids. (30) Lights out!"
